

This child is at risk of serious abdominal injury because the lap belt is over his tummy.

This child is well protected because her booster positions the safety belt correctly.