

Children who have outgrown a safety seat are 3 times more likely to sustain abdominal injuries in a crash if they don't ride in a booster to keep the lap belt low on the hips.

Injury from vehicle belt (no booster)

Torn liver (no booster)